

Balloon Releases

In July 2007 and 2008 the branch released balloons to commemorate relatives and friends who had passed away. Whilst these events were very successful and much appreciated by those who attended it was decided to discontinue them on environmental grounds

